LB 999, 1001

PRESIDENT: They will be considered withdrawn. He is not here to argue it anyway so we will go ahead.

CLERK: Final Reading of LB 999.

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relating to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 999 pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record the vote.

CLERK: Record vote read. (See page 1695, Legislative Journal.) 43 ayes, 2 nays, 2 excused and not voting, 2 present and not voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: LB 999 passes with the emergency clause attached. Before we go to the final bill on Final Reading, the Chair takes this opportunity to introduce from Senator Bernice Labedz' District 45 ladies from the Pulaski Club Auxiliary of South Omaha, and would you believe it, they are sitting in the South balcony and so that is appropriate, ladies, and welcome to the Legislature. We have over here in the North balcony from Senator Marvel's District 50 twelfth grade students from St. Cecilia's School, Hastings, Nebraska with teacher, Mr. Dave Binder. Would they wave to us, and welcome to your Legislature and Speaker Marvel is back there. Okay, we will now proceed then, Mr. Clerk, with the final bill on Final Reading, LB 1001.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a motion on the desk.

PRESIDENT: Read the motion, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Senator Johnson moves to return LB 1001 to Select File for a specific amendment and I believe amendments are being distributed, is that correct, Senator?

SENATOR JOHNSON: Yes, yes, they have been.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Johnson.

SENATOR JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker and members of the body, you have had in the last five to ten minutes amendments to this bill distributed together with a letter that essentially explains the amendments. The letter is one prepared by Senator David Stahmer who represented my area in Omaha for a number of years prior to my serving on the body. Senator Stahmer is one of those good citizens in society who takes a very lively interest in what happens with the public spending and the university system and the like and Senator
